The West Fork Sulphur Bridge Preservation Project located one mile north of Kohm Yah-Mah-Nee Visitor Center includes paint removal and repainting.

Week of September 7, 2020
Expect Loud noises while equipment is operating between 7am and 5pm.

- 9/07/2020 – Holiday (No Work)
- 9/08/2020 – Spray second coat of paint. (No traffic delays expected)
- 9/09/2020 – Spray final coat of paint. (No traffic delays expected)
- 9/10/2020 – Inspection & remove containment. (No traffic delays expected)
- 9/11/2020 – Remove containment. (No traffic delays expected)

Look Ahead Week of September 14th, 2020
Contractor will start removing temporary scaffolding. (One Way traffic control starting 9/14/2020)

Photo left: Shows second layer of paint in green and first layer of paint in pink. The top layer will be grey.