

Pavement Preservation Manzanar CONSTRUCTION NEWSLETTER

Moving to Manzanar

March 27, 2020

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES

Intermountain is going the extra mile working overtime tomorrow to get the Mojave striping completed in order to start Manzanar on Monday. Not only is ISS going the extra mile, NPS's tortoise specialist Matt Bristol agreed to work Saturday which was needed and is appreciated.

Most of Monday will be spent mobilizing to Manzanar and then the remainder of the week will be spent crack sealing and crack filling in preparation for the micro surfacing which will take place the following week.
